

Announcing the 12th version of ‘Essentials for Pianist Improvisers’ as a free download; search www.walter-norris.de

This twelfth version, now a pdf file, reduces the megabits from 35 to 3 and vertical lines should be exactly even on each page. In addition, enharmonic spelling has been restored plus an improved ending (pages 126-130) for ‘Gigue in G major’ by W. A. Mozart.

Soon, papers pertaining to a problem when practicing enharmonic notation will be placed in ALTERATIONS for downloading.

Also, the difficulties of practicing in the tonality of C (the largest stretch for your hand) by using the Etude op. 25 #1 by F. Chopin (transposed to C major) as an example. Everyone will notified by email after this is completed and posted on www.walter-norris.de.
